YANKEE STADIUM... "HOME OF CHAMPIONS"

Welcome to America's finest and most famous baseball park, Yankee Stadium. Long known as the "Home of Champions," this Stadium was completed in 1923.

Since that time, 42,118,964 fans have passed through the Stadium turnstiles to see the famed Bronx Bombers in action here, in American League competition. Millions more have watched World Series, big league football, championship fights and other important events at Yankee Stadium.

All 17 Yankee World Championship clubs have played here, and 20 of the 22 pennant winning Yankee teams. This unmatched record of success has meant the very best in baseball for Yankee Stadium fans. Among the many diamond greats who have performed in this tradition-steeped Stadium were such Yankees as Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, Herb Pennock, Tony Lazzeri, Bill Dickey, Lefty Gomez, Bob Meusel and Charlie Keller.

So, on behalf of all the Yankees—past and present—a sincere welcome to the "Home of Champions."

NEW FACES SPUR YANKS IN TITLE DEFENSE

No championship club can stand pat as the World Champion New York Yankees have so often demonstrated. Winners of 22 American League pennants since 1921, the Bombers never have stood still. Last winter's big trade with Kansas City helped the A's and gave the Yankees a needed pitching lift with the acquisition of Bobby Shantz and Art Ditmar, who have helped Casey Stengel immeasurably this summer.

Then, with left-handed hitting needed, the Bombers traded several fine young players to the A's just before the swap deadline in June to acquire Harry Simpson, who has filled in ably at first base, in right field and as a pinch hitter. The Yanks always give up a lot to land the men they need.

Home grown talent always has dominated the Yankee rosters, despite the many big trades in which the Bombers have been involved. Bobby Richardson, flashy second sacker, Tony Kubek, .300-hitting infielder-outfielder and Al Cicotte, young right-hander, all were developed by the Yankee organization.

FAMOUS
SCOREBOARD

Keeping up to the minute on activity at Yankee Stadium and all around both major leagues is made easy for Stadium fans through the famous Yankee scoreboard above the bleachers in center field.

Installed seven seasons ago and kept constantly up-to-date, the scoreboard cost more than $100,000, is 73 feet long, 34 feet high, contains 5,000 electric light bulbs and has 800 individual electrically operated controls, 500 for home games and 300 for out-of-town games.

Today's games are listed under each league. The pitcher of the moment is listed under the column headed "P." As games are completed, the runs, hits and errors are flashed under columns headed "R," "H" and "E." If clubs are playing double-headers, the first game scores are posted in the right column designated "1G." Hits and errors in the Stadium game are flashed on the board as soon as the scorer calls the play. The runs, hits and errors of the game in progress here also are given at the top of the scoreboard, plus the results of the Yankees' first game. And, of course, the current lineups of the game in progress here are posted. See photos above.

More and more business, fraternal, church, youth and social organizations have discovered that the perfect way to plan an outing or party is to visit Yankee Stadium. You'll see major league baseball at its very best here in the "Home of Champions."

It's a novel way to entertain, and mighty easy, too. You can put your entire group in one general location, if you desire. So you'll sit together, and cheer your favorite players, munch on peanuts and have a big time. Good idea? Then plan now, for choice seat locations are available, as always, on a first come, first served basis.

Stop in today at the Yankee Stadium Advance Ticket Office in the lobby behind home plate, or contact the Yankee Ticket Manager by mail at Yankee Stadium, Bronx 51, New York.

STADIUM PARKING FACILITIES

Yankee-operated parking lots will continue to assure fans wide aisles between rows, easy access to and from parking lot at all times and courteous treatment by the parking lot attendants—all part of a program of convenience for Yankee fans.

All four regular Yankee lots will be in operation again this year providing excellent parking at a uniform price of $1.00 both at the Stadium and North and South of the Stadium. The lot at 164th Street and River Ave., is especially convenient for fans driving through the North Bronx and the lot at 151st Street and River Ave. (opposite the Bronx County Jail) is especially convenient for fans driving from Long Island, Manhattan and the South Bronx.

For the "big days" of the 1957 season Yankee and Giant fans will again have additional parking available FOR BOTH PARKS. This is the way the plan works: When the Yankees are playing at home on Sundays, nights, holidays, and opening day, Polo Grounds parking lots will be open to Yankee fans. Likewise when the Giants are playing at the Polo Grounds on Sundays, nights, holidays and opening day Yankee Stadium parking lots will be available to Giant patrons.

YANKEE PARKING LOTS

- 1—South side 157th St., Ruppert Pl. to Cromwell Ave.
- 2—Between Cromwell and River Aves., on 153rd St.
- 3—163rd to 164th Sts., between River and Gerard Aves.
- 4—151st St. and River Ave., opposite Bronx County jail.

YANKEE CHATTER

During the illness-enforced absence of the Yankees' "Hall of Fame" coach Bill Dickey, a one-time popular teammate of Bill's is filling in for him on the coaching lines. Wearing Dickey's familiar No. 33 until Bill is able to return is Charlie Keller. Old "King Kong" was a member of the Yankees' great outfield of DiMaggio, Keller and Henrich. On his Maryland farm, Keller breeds trotting horses and the stable bears the appropriate "Yankee" name. Dickey suffered nervous exhaustion late in spring training and currently is recuperating in Florida.

CHARLIE KELLER

The first Yankee home Twi-Night Double-header in more than a half dozen seasons will be played at Yankee Stadium on Wednesday evening, September 25th at 6:00 P.M. The Baltimore Orioles will supply the opposition. This will be the final home appearance of the Champs this season. The Twi-Nighter was made necessary because of the Sugar Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio middleweight title fight at Yankee Stadium on Monday night, Sept. 23rd. Sept. 24th is a rain protection date for the fight.

A revised, up-to-date edition of the official 1957 YANKEE YEARBOOK is on sale here at the Stadium today. Priced at only 50¢, this colorful 48-page book contains more than 150 photographs, complete player biographies, world series records, and scores of other features. Already in its fourth printing, the YANKEE YEARBOOK is proving the most popular ever published. It is on sale only at the Stadium, or by mail. NOTES: With injuries reducing the effectiveness of the previously formidable Yankee pitching staff, the last month of the 1957 pennant race may prove to be the hottest in many years. All seven A. L. rivals will visit the Stadium in September for the Bombers' stretch drive. . . . The batting duel between the Yankees' defending Triple Crown king, Mickey Mantle, and the amazing Red Sox veteran, Ted Williams, for batting, home run and even RBI laurels will continue at the Stadium in September as the Bosox play two series here.

. . . that Mickey Mantle was the second Yankee to win the Triple Crown. The immortal Lou Gehrig did it in 1934 . . . that Don Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 World Series was the seventh no-hitter pitched by a Yankee. Five have been thrown at the Bombers . . . that Whitey Ford has the best won-lost record and the lowest earned run average of any active pitcher in the majors. Ed had won 80 and lost only 28 as the 1957 season started and he had a lifetime ERA of 2.73 . . . that Bobby Shantz made only one All-Star game appearance.
