

A Native American tradition

Today's Native American artists express themselves in ways that draw upon a rich cultural heritage, incorporating modern influences and techniques into traditional tribal forms. Come see how new forms of expression are born in Head, Heart and Hands: Native American Craft Traditions in a Contemporary World.

Now in our fifth decade of arts support, we at Philip Morris Companies Inc. continue our commitment to the visionary individuals and pioneering organizations whose creativity inspires us all.
