

would have overturned only two of the five disputed Supreme Court decisions. The bill would have specified "equitable" monetary relief in cases of harassment under certain circumstances, with a cap of $150,000. The measure also would have banned the adjustment of employment test scores for race, gender, national origin, or religion.

3. CIVIL RIGHTS WITH NO CAP ON DAMAGES. Rejected, 277-152, a bill authored by a coalition of blacks and women in Congress

$3 BILLION UP IN SMOKE

That's what Texas paid last year to care for people with tobacco-caused diseases.

Mayor Whitmire
and Judge Lindsay:

Let's stop permitting cigarette promotions on tax payer-supported property.
