The Syracuse University Career Services Network presents

FALL 2002 CAREER FAIR

Thursday, September 26, 2002

10:30 AM - 3:30 PM

Goldstein Auditorium

Schine Student Center

- Meet with 75+ employers from various industries and career fields.
- Connect with permanent and summer opportunities.
- Build your knowledge of career fields, entry level positions and future possibilities.
- Network with alumni returning to represent their employers.
- All students welcome!

2001-2002 was a tough year for college grads.....

and, despite an uncertain picture for 2002-2003 due to a slowly improving economy, this year might prove a rewarding one for new grads. Don't miss this chance to start the job-hunting year with a bang! Never attended a career fair before? Not to worry! Read Insuring Career Fair Success and Job Fairs Can Give You a Leg Up. Also, bring your questions (and resumes for critiquing) to advisors at the Center for Career Services. Attend one of their special workshops! We want you to succeed!

If you missed this event, check with the Center for Career Services as to the further recruiting plans of these employers. Many may have already set in motion interviewing through the eRecruiting system.
