

Virginia Slims Tennis Legends aids Hope House to win over AIDS

When the Legends of Womens' Tennis came to town recently to raise money in the fight against AIDS, they met two Local Legends in AIDS fund-raising - Jacky O'Gorman and Nancy Domeyer.

Amy Kohn, chair of the Legends Sports Spectacular Event did a marvelous job in raising over $18,000 for Hope House. The guests of honor were three old pros themselves; Gardner Malloy, Jacqueline Wallach and Owen Williams.

All proceeds from the auction and Legends Sports Spectacular Event plus contributions from the tennis tournament will be utilized by Hope House to carry out a very important mission; to provide an open door to those living with AIDS in Palm Beach County.

Ms. O'Gorman and Ms. Domeyer joined the likes of Billie Jean King, Chris Everet, Martina Navratilova, Pam Shriver, Zina Garrison, Evonne Goolagong, Wendy Turnbull, Rosie Casales, Tracy Austin and Virginia Wade at the Virginia Slims Legend's Tour in Delray Beach at the

Anne Penney, Carl Ardleigh and Rhoda Warren enjoy the Legends event
photo by Lucien Capehart Photography

Delray Tennis Center - but first, the Legends participated in a fund-raising Dinner & Fashion Show plus a live and silent auction to benefit the women of Hope House of the Palm Beaches, Inc.. Pam Shriver and Billie Jean King performed an electric live auction serving the laughter and delivering the money to Hope House.

Proceeds from the Virginia Slims Tour will be divided between The National AIDS Fund and Hope House of the Palm Beaches, Inc. For information on Hope House, call (561) 697-2600.