

CORONATION ECHO

A COPY of the Coronation issue of "Smoke Signals" was beautifully bound and sent to Her Majesty the Queen with an expression of loyalty and affection.

Her Majesty has graciously accepted it and we are proud to publish a reproduction of the letter from Sir Michael Aderne, the Queen's Private Secretary, sent to us by Her express command.

In the Composing Department of S. T. Leigh the special issue was read, made up, imposed and checked by Alan George and George Russell under the supervision of Mr. S. Henson. It was printed in the Letterpress Department of which Mr. N. Berry is the foreman, and the machinists concerned were Albert Dutton and William Watson. It was bound in the Binding Department where Mr. M. Sullivan is the foreman and the work was done by Horace Preddey.

The copy was full bound in maroon morocco, embellished with gold ornament and lined and padded with gold moiré taffeta. It was enclosed in a box lined with the same material.

(Page Five)

"O, Come all ye Faithful."

CHRISTMAS ★ 1953

Christmas issue of "Smoke Signals," the House Magazine published for the employees of British Tobacco Co. (Aust.) Ltd., and its Associated Companies.