Fast relief from prescription benefit aches and pains.

Making you feel better about your prescription benefit plan—that's what Medco is all about.

At Medco, we help you manage your prescription benefit plan so you can give something of value to the people you value.

When you team up with Medco, you'll have a proactive partner searching for new ways to help. You'll work with a dedicated team that will design a program tailored to your needs.

Most important, you'll work with people who will help you meet your goal—to provide employees with a level of care that keeps rising, at a cost that doesn't.

To feel better about your prescription benefit plan, ask your health plan representative about us, visit medco.com, or contact your account representative.

Coke's College CRISIS

Alleged labor abuses have prompted several top colleges to terminate their Coca-Cola contracts. How justified are the charges? Will your school follow suit?
